Mine Payroll Of $64,000 Stimulates Trade

Employees Are Paid Off In Good U. S. Currency

Four mining companies Wednesday and today will have turned into the channels of circulation in business and trade in Nevada City and Grass Valley, $64,000 in currency. This is the conservative estimate of one of the bankers who handled the transaction.

The Bank of America acted as agent for the mine owners, who assigned the work of paying off to them because of their superior facilities for handling a large payment of this kind. The money, which came in exchange for gold bullion belonging to the mine owners in the United States mint at San Francisco, was sent to the branch banks of Nevada City and Grass Valley direct and was not deposited with them, as in the past, owing to the strict rules imposed by the President's bank holiday proclamation.

The estimated payrolls of the mines were as follows:

Empire Star and Murchie mines, $45,000; Idaho-Maryland mine, $15,000; Hoge Mining Company, $4,000. Total $64,00.

The scene at the Grass Valley and Nevada City branches of the Bank of America Wednesday between the hours of 4 p. m. and 5 p. m. closely resembled that of the long lines of waiting patrons at a metropolitan movie house when a special attraction had been billed. Long lines of sturdy miners and other employes of the Murchie mine at Nevada City and of the Empire Star Mines, Ltd. at the Grass Valley branch formed waiting lines before each of the "Paying Windows" of the banks. Many women were noted among those who held the cream colored checks, duly indorsed of course by friend husband, and it would be difficult to describe the happy expression on the faces of each when the teller passed each a sheaf of crisp greenbacks, fresh from the United States mint in exchange for the okeyed check.

And the men—payees,—well, as they happily returned from the teller's window and hastily rushed for the door to make contact with the various merchants and put their money in circulation—their currency of the realm, the representative of The Nugget, a spectotor felt more than ever convinced of the fact that the miners are the backbone, the financial bulwark of this community.

No special police inside the bank and no holdup men outside to menace the departing payees made the local bank differ widely from metropolitan banks disbursing money by special privilege in the same day.

An atmosphere of optimism, an atmosphere of trust in the mining companies, deferring not one day in paying their obligations, has pervaded Nevada City and Grass Valley in the past two days and created full confidence that the few days of the banking holiday period will ultimately cease and bring to full fruition an era better balanced in financial matters, a financial structure for this state which may not be injured by other states.

Dire predictions of pessimists that miners and mine employees would hoard their money from this last "pay day" in apprehension of worse to come, were not fulfilled.

The local merchants can verify the fact that money was spent with the normal liberality that characterizes the follow-up days (the succeeding days after pay-day).

CAPT. CHAPMAN FLYS HOME, VISITS DAUGHTER

Captain Allen Chapman, U. S. A. R. F., as a passenger and Captain J. C. Kennedy of Crissy Field circled over Nevada City Tuesday noon later landing at Gilmore airport in Grass Valley.

There Capt. Chapman was met by Mrs. Don Steger who brought him to Nevada City where he was called by telegram to be at the bedside of his daughter, Margaret, who is somewhat improved from a dangerous spell of whooping cough. The little girl will not let him out of her sight and has shown improvement since his arrival.

Captain Chapman guided the ship over the city selecting outstanding buildings, going first to the county hospital back until he sighted the court house and then flew over the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chapman as he neared his home he tipped the plane to the left glanced out and waved to members of his family who were anxiously watching for him.

ALMOST MILE OF CITY MAINS NEED REPLACEMENT

The committee of the Nevada City Fire Department consisting of Dick Coyne, R. L. P. Bigelow and H. Penrose, met Tuesday night with City Engineer Ed Uren and canvassed data pertaining to repairs and replacements imperatively needed in the city's water mains.

It developed that the city engineer regards as impractical the pian to place copper bands around the redwood stave pipe, which after 19 years of service is still sound, but must be reinforced. The steel wire wrappings of this pipe are so nearly rusted away, that the entire pipe is unsafe and must be replaced, or copper banding must be done. It is believed that it will be cheaper to replace the pipe than to reinforce the old pipe. The redwood sleeves over the joints are often in bad condition.

There will be 3,040 feet of redwood pipe to replace with steel pipe if this course is followed.

In addition to this it was regarded as necessary to replace 1,400 feet of iron pipe on the north side of this city. Other replacements which will be recommended are in the supply main from Sugar Loaf reservoir to the city's reservoirs. Altogether there will be nearly a mile of mains to be replaced.

No official estimates of the cost of thes ereplacements has yet been made but the city engineer is now preparing estimates for the city council.

The supervisors of this county are attending in Sacramento the state convention of county supervisors. Deputy Clerk Ralph E. Deeble accompanied them. The convention opened Wednesday and continues through today.

In their session Tuesday claims against the county were approved but money will not be available for payment of warrants until the bank holidays are ended.

Bill Before Congress To Open And Control Banks

WASHINGTON D. C. Mar. 9—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today urged the specially convened congress today to empower him immediately to open "sound" banks, to reorganize other banks and to provide currency expansion.

Shortly afterwards Roosevelt's emergency bill was submitted to Congress for the purpose of carrying out his program.

"Our first task is to reopen all sound banks," he declared; and went at once into his immediate emergency plans—"I ask of the Congress the immediate enactment of legislation giving to the executive branch of the government control over banks for th eprotection of depositors; authority forthwith to open such banks as have already been ascertained to be in sound condition and other such banks as rapidly as possible, and authority to reorganize and reopen such banks as may be found to require reorganization to put them on a sound basis.

"I ask amendments to the federal reserve act to provide for such additional currency, adequately secured, as it may become necessary to issue to meet all demands for currency, and at the same time to achieve this end without increasing the unsecured indebtedness of the government of the United States.

"I can not too strongly urge upon the Congress the clear necessity for immediate action."

PROVISIONS OF BILL

The bill offered today would ratify the executive orders issued by the president and continue his authority over the banking situation; provide for concentration of the nation's gold supply in the federal reserve banks; penalize hoarding, and provide for controlled expansion of the currency.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, said he was convinced the bill was sound and that if "passed today will assure the opening of many banks both national and state, to-morrow that are closed."

The measure was referred immediately to the banking committee.

"The bill," Robinson declared, "ratifies the orders and proclamations heretofore issued by the president and secretary of the treasury, penalizes hoarding, requires member banks to pay to the federal reserve bank gold bullion or gold certificates owned by such member banks and to receive therefor coin or currency, and attaches heavy penalties for non-compliance.

REORGANIZATIONS CONTEMPLATED

"Among other provisions for the measure authorizes reorganizations under careful safeguards and for a period of segregation of new deposits in banks of a certain class, the new deposits so segregated to be subject to withdrawals as the comptroller may permit.

"There is provision for reasonable and controlled expansion of the currency, based on government bonds and assets and the issuance of federal reserve bank notes."

Eugene Katzer, fireman on the Narrow Gauge railroad, spent sometime recently visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Katzer in San Bernardino county.

LITTLE BOY, WHO FELL FROM WINDOW, IN SERIOUS CONDITION IN HOSPITAL

Billie Robinson, who fell from a second story window Wednesday afternoon, lies in the Jones Memorial hospital in Grass Valley in a very critical condition.

The little lad, but 22 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robinson, was out of his mother's sight but a few minutes, when he climbed out of the window, dropped to the porch roof below, and then to the pavement 12 feet lower. Children, seeing the accident, called Mrs. W. C. Perry, who phoned for Dr. W. W. Reed. A brief examination revealed the need of hospital treatment. The Holmes ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the hospital.

Yesterday the little fallow had not regained consciousness, and until he does, it is not known whether an operation will be necessary or not, but the x-ray revealed a basic fracture of the skull.

A report late last night stated that the baby was able to recognize it's mother.

FIRE MENACES 18 PATIENTS

Approximately 18 patients in various stages of health were removed from the Jones Memorial Hospital, located on South Church street, at 10 o'clock Wednesday night when a fire discovered in the basement gained threatening headway.

The patients were temporarily cared for in neighboring homes and within half an hour were being returned to their rooms. Local ambulances aided in the work.

The fire of undetermined origin was found in the basement by the night staff during an investigation caused by th esmell of smoke.

60-DAY MORATORIUM ON FORECLOSURES PLANNED

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9—Legislation proposing a sixty-day moratorium on foreclosures of mortgages, trust deeds or other liens against homes and farms in California was passed in the assembly today by unanimous vote.

The intent of the legislation is to prevent the eviction of families from their homes during the present financial emergency.

After going over the bill ,th ecommittee reported it out with a recommendation "do pass."

Like the banking and building and loan legislation, the bill carries an urgency clause to permit it to become effective immediately.

IDAHO-MARYLAND DECLARES DIVIDEND

The Idaho-Maryland Mining Company has declared it's first dividend. The dividend will be 2 cents share payable March 15 to stock holders of record March 10. At the end of the next quarter the directors will hold another meeting and at that time decide upon a regular dividend policy and the dates of payment.

P. G. AND E. MAKES $25,000 GAS PLANT IMPROVEMENT

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company, through its Nevada county Manager, D. C. Stewart, has announced th ecompletion of a $25,000 improvement program at the Grass Valley gas plant whereby the capacity is doubled.

The work required about four months.

Larger capacity generators, pumps, storage tanks, etc., were among the units installed.

The Grass Valley "gas works," which supplies Grass Valley, Nevada City and adjacent territory, is among the oldest in California, having had its inception nearly fifty years ago.

S. F.-OAKLAND BAY BRIDGE TO EMPLOY 6,500

The San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, representing an investment of seventy-eight million dollars, to be built entirely without taxation, will affect the prosperity of all California, and will be felt in some industries throughout the United States. This statement was made by Mr. Earl Lee Kelly, Director of Puplic Works of California in answer to questions propounded. Answering the scores of questions which have swamped the bridge offices, Director Kelly said:

"The San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge will be the largest single construction job to be started in the United States this year. This bridge will require 6.7 per cent of the entire steel output of the United States for the year 1933, according to estimates of the steel industry.

"The bridge will require 30,000,000 board feet of lumber, or sufficient to build 3,000 five-room dwellings, estimating 10,000 feet of lumber to a dwelling.

"The concrete and steel utilized in the bridge would build 35 Russ Buildings (San Francisco), 35 City Halls (Los Angeles), or more than 35 L. C. Smith Buildings (Seattle).

"Individual towers supporting sections of the bridge are more than 500 feet high from their base in the rock below the surface of the Bay to the top, and each of them represent a greater construction job than any skyscraper on the Pacific Coast.

"Tourists from all over the United States will be attracted by the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, crossing this historic Bay, and completing the last link in the Atlantic to Pacific highway.

"An average of 6,500 men will be given employment for a three and one-half year period.

"The bridge is a self-liquidating project, financed out of its tolls, and does not add one dollar of property tax burden on the state of California.

BEN HARTLING OF DOWNIEVILLE PASSES

Funeral services will be held this afternoon under the direction of the Holmes Funeral Home for the late Ben Hartling of Downieville, who passed away in that city Wednesday morning. The funeral will take place in Downieville.

The deceased was 66 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Hartling, pioneers of that mountain city. Of a large family only one brother, Val Hartling, of Redwood City, survives. Ben Hartling was well beloved in his community. His friends were legion and his enemies none.

Hartling was born and lived all his life in the city of his birth. For many years his occupation was that of blacksmith and through shoeing the horses for all the stage lines running in and out of Downieville, he became very well known both for his honesty and for his excellent work. In men like Hartling California loses its fine early day characters. Hartling is mourned by the entire community and many who knew him throughout the state.

By a strange coincidence Ben Hartling was buried on the day which would have been his birthday anniversary.

FORMER NEVADA CITY MAN DIES IN S. F

Funeral services were held Tuesday in San Francisco for Howard C. Mallen, San Francisco police detective, who was born in this city 57 years ago. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mallen, pioneer residents of this city.

Mallen received his education in the Nevada City schools. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, a grandson and one brother. A sister, Mrs. Lillian E. Barker, died suddenly three weeks ago.

REMINGTON HILL PLACER MINES INC. MERGES 5 MINES

Huge Gravel Properties Now Are Consolidated in New Company

RICH PLACER AREA OPENED

Frank A. Crampton States Hydraulicking Work To Open Shortly

Frank A. Crampton, vice president of the Mining Association of California, returned last evening from Los Angeles. Enroute to Nevada City, he stopped off in Sacramento, and found that bills submitted by the association are going forward satisfactorily in the legislature.

His most important news, however, was that the Remington Hill Placers Inc., of which he is the principal owner and engineer, has consolidated the following properties under its name: The Oakdale Mining company's holdings, the Skehan Mine, the Remington Hill Mine, the Wide West Mine, and all the mines at Democrat, near Remington Hill.

The area involved amounts to 1,700 acres, all gravel properties.

The incorporators consist of Louis Lichtenberger, president, Senator Buol of Nevada, vice president, and D. Q. Parks, mining engineer, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Crampton has been working on this consolidation for the past 18 months. He will leave today for Remington Hill to be gone for two weeks.

The force of twelve miners now employed by the company at Remington Hill will soon be considerably increased. In this property alone there are six million yards of gravel that will average 22 cents per yard, Mr. Crampton states. Through this winter the miners there have been working in bedrock gravel that runs $8.00 per yard.

Preparations are now being made for extensive hydraulicking operations.

Mr. Crampton announced that his associates for many years, J. C. Denerlen, of Los Angeles, had passed away yesterday in that city.

STATE MANAGER IS ADVOCATED

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9—(UP)—A complete revision of state government, one which provides for a state manager, has been proposed to the state legislature.

A constitutional amendment providing for the manager and abolishing elective officers except the govture and judiciary was introduced to the assembly by Assemblyman Albert Morgan, Albany.

"The plan," Morgan said, "is to place responsibility for all state activities in the hands of one responsible person. The opportunity for 'buck-passing' which now exists among the several departments would disappear were they to operate under one office. Activities would be centralized and finances would be subject to closer scrutiny."

The bill provides creation of the office of state manager to be the administrative head of the state government and responsible for administration of all departments of the state government which the legislature has the authority to control.

LUCKY NEVADA COUNTY

Wednesday and today four of the big mining companies of this district paid their employes in currency. The total amount paid out in currency was $64,000. This is a conservative estimate. In Grass Valley and Nevada City there are approximately 6,000. Divide that number of people into the $64,000, and we have a pro rata distribution of about $10.60 for every man woman and child in the two cities. There are two pay days a month, so that the total payroll for the month is $128,000, and distributed pro rata would come to $21.20 for every man woman and child.

Now of course, this payroll money is not distributed in that manner, but its ultimate effect on the living conditions of the two cities, and for that matter of the farming community amounts to much the same thing. For that currency immediately placed in circulation in payment of bills, payment of installments on homes, automobiles, furniture or the many things purchased on installments now-a-days, for food, clothing, medicine, and services of various kinds, very rapidly penetrates the entire fabric of our community.

This computation does not include a dozen or two smaller mining properties which also have bi-monthly payrolls, which would undoubtedly increase the total monthly payroll to something near $150,000 per month.

Compare this condition with that of almost any other county in California, and then think how lucky this bright, white spot on the California map really is. Lucky, in the sense that man had nothing whatever to do with putting the gold in "these here hills" of ours. It is just one of those natural phenomena of which man is the beneficiary.

TO RESTRICT PEDDLING

Sierra county supervisors have passed an ordinance imposing a $3 license fee on all peddlers in the county. This license is collected from everyone who peddles merchandise of any kind. Of course merchants with fixed places of business do not have to pay this license, but if they undertake peddling operations they would have to pay it the same as outsiders.

As result peddlers are paying into the county treasury at this time about $35 per month. In the summer time the amount will be larger, but even at the present rate the amount is over $400 per year, and merchants do receive some protection against outside competition.

The trouble with most ordinances of this kind, is that they are passed for the express purpose of keeping out of the county, outside competition, and impose an unreasonably large license fee. Courts have frequently declared such ordinances discriminatory and ruled them unconstitutional, since they were so framed as to exempt local merchants engaged in peddling operations.

This ordinance, however, is intended to place a mild restriction on peddling, and to bring in revenue to the county. Yuba county supervisors are about to adopt a similar ordinance.

THE PAY STREAK

By H. M. L.

It is always darkest just before the dawn, and finnancially speaking we believe there is beginning to be a glimmer of light. In the play "Chanticler" the cock crows up the sun every morning. We are not sure but that President Roosevelt may not bring up the sun of normalcy or, at any rate a better dawn we have enjoyed for a long time. Reports here and there from the man on the street and in the business houses indicate a better feeling, a more hopeful feeling since the President's proclamation of closing all the banks. People have more faith and, generally speaking, more respect for the Federal Government than for any state or lesser government. At any rate, action is what Americans "crave." Better a mistake, than to do nothing and drift into confusion worse confounded.

The reasoning of many people on the Roosevelt Proclamation runs something like this: All banks having been closed, all must start on stratch when opening day comes. Congress will determine what "scratch," or, the opening conditions shall be. Hence with Federal government making the rules, when the banks do re-open, their opening will signalize a radical change in policy. Temporarily, it is believed, that something tantamount to a Federal guarantee of deposits, will be given. This may be a temporary device, but if it works it may be made permanent. Anything of this kind would go a long way toward restoring confidence and starting this nation on the upgrade.

Of course this is somewhat trite, but if Canada, England and France can divise bank systems that never know a bank failure once in a life time, why cannot this good old United States of ours be smart enough to do likewise. We suspect that in Canada, for instance, money on deposit, is not permitted to be used for speculative purposes, even though, as in the case of the 1929 stock boom, call money offers big profits to bankers. Without call money available, stock booms, would not be so booming. And that would be a very good thing for the country as experience sadly proves. Another thought, we hear frequently expressed, is that in Canada and else where, when one of the rare bank failures happens, the banker is held responsible. In some manner he has violated the rules of the game, and to jail he marches .

Another thought on this matter, is that there are but five banks in Canada. All of them are chain banks. Many of the leading bankers of this country today see eye for eye with Senator Carter Glass of Virginia. They believe that fewer banks and stronger banks, under rigorous Federal superivision, will eventaully place our banks on the sane firm ground that Canadian banks now occupy.

The utter failure of our present banking system, which from any reasonable standpoint, should be just as good in bad times as in good, was illustrated a short time ago by a cartoon in an Eastern magazine. It depicted a dejected citizen seated on a park bench. He was lost in sorrowful reverie. A common ordinary variety of tle "blanket stiff" paused in front of him ,and asked: "When times was good, why didni't you put your money in the savings banks?" Grimly the citizen answered: "I did."

CALIFORNIANS WILL BROADCAST SATURDAY

Misses Karen, Mozelle, Drew and Nilan Hansen and Catherine Celio will motor to Sacramento Saturday where the Misses Hansen will play four musical numbers over the Bee radio station. Miss Celio will accompany them. At this time it is planned that Miss Celio will also have a solo on the 15 minute program.

The girls received great encouragement in their opening recital and if they sign the contract which sems quite probable they will be known as "The Californians."

INEQUALITIES IN SCHOOL TAX ARE REVEALED

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 8—(UP)—Wealth is so unevenly distributed that inequalities of assessed value by ditsricts make the districts poor units for school tax purposes, in the opinion of Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction.

A summary prepared by Kersey as an argument against reduction and abandonment of the state school support plan, proposed in a number of bills before the legislature, shows that the taxable wealth per pupil for school support in Nevada county ranges from $1,143 to $23,209.

Assessed valuation, as measured by average daily attendance in elementary schools, it was pointed out, varies from $1 per pupil in one Sonoma county district to as high as $350,148 in a San Joaquin county district.

"The ability to raise money by means of local taxation is measured in terms o fassessed value," Kersey said. "A tax of 50 cents on each $100 of assessed value would raise but one-half cent per pupil in the state's poorest district, while a similar tax in the richest district would yield $1,750 per pupil.

"A study of the inequalities of assessed value by districts illustrates the superiority of the county over the district as a unit of taxation," Kersey asserted.

"At the same time the wealth per child of the poorest county would not be an ideal unit for school taxation. A tax of 75 cents per $100 of assessed value would be necessary to raise the minimum of $50 per child now required to match state contributions to school support. In cases where poorer districts of poorer counties are forced to raise money, their tax rate is bound to increase enormously."

In 12 counties, the department report revealed, the range of taxable wealth as between districts is a excess of a one to 100 ratio.

HOUSE PASSES BILL TO THROW OPEN AGRICULTURAL LAND

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9—Thuosads of acres of government land in the western states now with-held from public entry because of mineral wealth would be opened for agricultural purposes under the Chavez bill passed recently by the House. The measure was sent to the Senate.

This measure should be looked into by mining men and prospectors. In this section of California there is very little mining ground, carrying gold that is open to entry and that is situated in the high elevations, not suitable for farming.

During the time Albert Fall was secretary of the Interior, Nevada county citizens were given much trouble and a lot of money was spent when the railroad companies tried to prove up on sections of land in the high Sierras as farming land. In many instances the claim owner was unable financially to fight the railroads.

Today acres and acres of excellent farm land can be purchased in California and practically all over the United States for a song.

RECEIPTS FROM FISHING LICENSES DECREASE

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9—(UP)—California anglers paid approximately $436,000 for fishing licenses in 1932, according to a preliminary check by the state division of fish and game.

The total represents a decrease of $60,000 under fishing license sales of 1931, it is claimed.

A similar check on the sale of hunting licenses indicates a total of approximately $467,000, an increase of $44,000 over the receipts from 1931 hunting licenses. This increase it was pointed out, resulted on the $3 license for the 18-month period as compared with the $2 license for the preceding 12 months.

"In other words," the report said, "approximately 156,000 hunting licenses were sold last year as compared with 211,000 in 1931.

The man who tell you that all men are equal really believes that he is a little more so.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

By THOMAS B. MALARKEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 6—(UP)—Who'll be next?

In a gradual crescendo, this question has swept through the capitol and on out into the state, as an apparent Rolph cabinet crisis appeared imminent.

First to feel the axe in the recent shakeup was Dudley Moulton, director of agriculture. Governor Rolph acceded to demands of the state board of agriculture and fired his appointee. It had long been foreseen. There was too much opposition to Moulton. If somebody had to fall, he was the logical first choice.

But the dismissal may not end there. It is not beyond possibility that Rolland A. Vandegrift, director of finance, or Dr. J. M. Toner, director of institutions may be removed.

Both have been targets of the persistent Inman committee. Indeed, one witness testified he had learned that Dr. Toner proposed that he be "cut in" on the sale of the Ventura hospital site.

In any event, Rolph has not rushed to the defense of his two cabinet officers. He said he would reserve judgment until he read the transcript of testimony of the senate investigation committee.

By way of contrast, a San Francisco newspaper reported that Pat Meherin, president of the state board of harbor commissioners, was slated for discharge. Rolph was indignant. He insisted upon immediate withdrawal of the statement and vigorously upheld his appointee.

There has been an abrupt change in California's "Sunny Jim." He has abandoned his role of jovial, itinerant governor. His exuberant good nature is not so apparent. Worry is reflected in his countenance. Occasional outbursts of temper—unprecedented in the career of this serene executive—show the strain under which he is laboring.

Emphasizing this charge was no incident the other night. After a long public career during which he has been alternately lampooned and praised, the governor fired a newspaperman out of his office for the first time in his life.

It was a purely spontaneous act. The newspaperman was so astonished he could scarcely believe his ears.

"Get out of here and stay out," Rolph shouted. And that was that.

For better or worse, Rolph is back in the capitol to fight for his very political existence. There is abundant evidence that his friends have told him his political house may fall around his ears if something isn't done to counteract the on-sets of his enemies.

The Rolph strategy is offensive and defensive. While vigorous counter-attacks are contemplated against Inman, the administration is patching up weak spots here and there by dismissals. That explains the dismissal of Moulton and H. J. Gardner.

Seldom have capitol newspapermen listened to such a violent and bitter attack as that levelled by "Sunny Jim" at Inman. The words fairly boiled out of the harried governor. Inman threatened to sue the governor for libel.

Before the thing is over, the Rolph Inman fight will probably be ranked as one of the bitterest political battles in the state's history.

ATTENDANCE AT PRIZE FIGHTS INCREASE

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9—(UP)—Attendance at boxing and wrestling shows in California continue to increase, according to Dr. Harry W. Martin, chairman of the state athletic commission.

A total of 636 more paid admissions were recorded in January than for the same period last year, Dr. Martin reported, although receipts fell off 25 per cent because of lowered admission prices.

The gate receipts for last January totalled $82,193.01 as compared to $116,296 for January 1932.

KIDNAPED KID

SACRAMENTO —(UP) —A. Sanchez and Cruz L. Lopez were arrested for kidnaping, but the charge had to be changed to grand theft. The kid was a baby goat.

More than a BETTER way to cook .... a SIMPLER way!

Electric RANGES FOR Easier MEALS
that save you money... that taste better...

NO OTHER COOKING METHOD is so easy. Nothing complicated, nothing difficult to master. One needs but to set two simple automatic devices. Nothing to worry about because these automatic controls of time and temperature are electric controls, as quick and certain in action as the switch you click to turn on your electric lights.

No other cooking method is so certain. In fact, women who cook with an electric range forget a meal is being cooked in the range, so certain are they of its repeated time-after-time successes. Then, too, pots and pans and kitchen walls stay bright and new as though there were no stove in the kitchen.

Yes, the electric range makes actual cash savings on your food bills. Meat roasts, fish or fowl retain juicy tenderness with far less drying out. Actual food shrinkage is less, from 20 to 33 per cent—a fact reason why electric range cooking saves money.

See the 1933 models of electric ranges on display in our office or at your dealer's store. Note the finer finish and thicker insulation on the oven walls and doors of these ranges. You will be surprised at the lower prices on these finer quality products. Ask, too, about the easy purchase terms on these new electric range models.

Felix Gillet Plaque dedication ceremonies were held Wednesday afternoon. Two selections by the Nevada City high school band, opened the program.

Mrs. H. E. Kjorlie, president of the Woman's Civic Improvement Club, made a brief introductory talk introducing C. E. Parsons, nurseryman who now owns the famous Felix Gillet Nursery.

Mr. Parsons, after a few introductory remarks, read two letters written Felix Gillet just before his death one from Dr. Brackett, noted pomologist, and the other from Judge J. F. Leit, of San Jose, both giving unstinted praise for his great work in introducing and perfecting, first and most important of all, the English walnut, second the filberts and later French prunes and chestnuts. Mr. Parsons pointed to many trees in the grounds that were planted by Gillet. One letter stated that they wished Gillet's lot had fallen to live in one of the big valleys or a spot more suited to his experiments.

Mr. Parsons also read an article from a Sacramento Bee written by Gillet in 1905. Notes appended by the Bee credited him as being the chief authority on English walnuts in California.

Other interesting trees planted were hickory nuts, pink acacia and a number of shrubs.

What is regarded as the Gillet original home is now a work shop. Gillet built the present house now occupied by Mr. Parson and family. As he planted well he also built strong and snug houses.

Felix Gillet was born in France. When he was a good sized boy he ran away from home and followed the sea, later returning home. His father was stern and sent him back to sea. He ran away a second time and not liking the sea arrived in Boston, Mass. There he made the acquanitance of Julia Ward Howe and Harriett Beacher Stowe.

The gold rush of '49 proved too strong so he came to California. He started a barber shop in Nevada City. Later he purchased the Barren Hill property then a mass of granite boulders and brush. Felix Gillet was visionary and through his energy and dreaming he cleared and started a nursery that made him one of Californias truly great men.

Miss Fischer of the high school faculty designed the plaque which was placed on one of the posts that are at the entrance to the nursery. It reads:

> Here lived and worked Felix Gillet, a Frenchman by birth, an American by adoption, from 1871 to 1908, through whose vision and perserverence the horticultural world was enriched by the propagation and culture of walnuts, filberts, chestnuts and prunes. In commemoration of his work this tablet was set March 7, 1933, by the Women's Civic Club of Nevada City, California.

Mrs. Lyda Talbot sang, "And Old Fashioned Garden" adding charm to the impressive service.

Mrs. Reglan Tuttle dedicated the plaque in her pleasing manner. Among her remarks was the statement that Mr. Purdy of Ukiah, in an address to the local civic club had likened Felix Gillet in his work as "Nevada county's outstanding citizen, fit to stand side by side with Luther Burbank."

This fitting tribute to Felix Gillet is only one of the many fine things the Women's Improvement Club has accomplished since it started about three years ago.

Few sections of the state of California, have the romance, beauty, history, and resources that pertains to Placer, Nevada and Sierra counties.

FRENCH CORRAL HEARS PRES. ROOSEVELT SPEAK

FRENCH CORRAL Calif. Mar.9—The weather is something like the condition of our country—unsettled a few gray days and then a bunch of sunshine, that seems to gladden the hearts of all nature for we hear the birds singing on all sides, then comes the clouds again and the blue dome is overcast and grey.

The leading theme for the past week has been the "Banking Holiday, however, it looks as if matters will soon be set to right and all will go well once more.

In one of the homes in French Corral we had the pleasure of hearing the Inaugural ceremonies at the National Capital. President Franklin D. Roosevelt's words certainly carried a tone of sincerety that could not fail to be reassuring and implant in the heart a hope for better conditions—And when we heard the words of our President, clear and distinct as if he were in the same room with us we could not help thinking of the wonders of the radio that makes such things possible and memory went back to 55 years ago, when the main battery for the first long distance telephone line was installed in the mining company's office in our own French Corral.

The Pike City mail has progressed up to a horse, having been carried by skis and then by foot for the past many weeks. CUB SCOUTS IN NEED OF ADULT LEADER

Scout Executive Reibsecker of Auburn met with the mothers of Cub Scouts on Monday and talked over work, and decided to hold meetings after school. The date for the meetings has not been set, but this will be taken up at a later time.

Since Harold Wright, cub scout leader, left, the scouts are without a leader. Two high school boys are acting as leaders at this time, but the need for an older man is felt very keenly.

Saturday the boys are going to hike to the junction of Deer Creek and mosquito creek beyond the county hospital where they will have a weenie roast. Several mothers plan to accompany the boys as chaperons.

The mothers have decided to hold a meeting once a month to discuss things of interest to Cub Scouts and their problems.

They will meet April 3, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Kilroy and County Executive Reiksecker will meet with them at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland and daughter, Ardelle, of Grass Valley were Nevada City visitors Monday.

Will Young of Park Avenue was taken by ambulance to Sacramento today where he will take the first of a series of treatment at the Sisters Hospital. He is to return tonight.

LUMBER TALKS

Spring is whispering to me,
Words of hope and cheer,
I am always filled with vim
At this time of year;
There's a garden to be made,
Cleaning up to do,
I shall trim my trees and Shrubs
And my hedges too.

I shall mend my broken fence,
I shall paint my floor,
I shall put a good strong hinge
On my kitchen door;
I shall paint the roof—you bet!
Now I'm on the jump,
I'm even going to plant a rose
On the city dump.

Since our last reminder that spring was approaching, increased calls for paints, brushes and such other materials as are necessary for cleaning up, painting up and building up, further reminds us that spring is just around the corner. Remember our service and stock of building materials will enable us to help you. If more convenient to phone 29 than call, do so, and we will gladly have arepresentative call at your home.
